BIG MEETING
Of Jeffersontown Commercial Club
Desired—Ladies Invited to Attend.

The next meeting of the Jeffersontown Commercial Club will be held Friday night, Sept. 5, at 8 o'clock at Bruce Hall. The meeting will be open to everybody, and the ladies are especially invited.

Aside from the regular business, which is of great importance on account of the Club not having met for some time, Mr. E. L. Sprawl will have a proposition to make that should, and doubtless will interest everybody in this community. Mr. Sprawl is thoroughly interested in the county's welfare, as well as being connected with the big movements of the Louisville Commercial Club, and everybody who will attend the meeting will hear something that will entertain them. Don't fail to come out. The ladies always respond to a call of this kind, and the men are urged to do their part, too.

The proposition that is to be brought before the Club by Mr. Sprawl concerns the part Jefferson county will take in the Pan-American Exposition in Louisville and should interest everybody.

The purpose for opening said new road being to furnish said neighborhood with a road on high ground to get a more direct and shorter route to the courthouse, railway station, postoffice, mill and church.

TRUE PICTURE OF PIANO.

READ THIS LETTER
Louisville, Ky., July 26, 1913.—The Jeffersonian, Jeffersontown, Ky., Gentlemen: After you had decided on the Smith & Barnes piano as the first prize in your Circulation Contest, you told us that you had selected same after looking at various makes of pianos. There is not a question about your having acted wisely, as the Smith & Barnes piano has been on the market for over twenty years. We have seen it for the past fifteen years, and we are frank to say to you that we have never seen a piano that gave better satisfaction or that was more highly thought of than the Smith & Barnes. We have several thousand Smith & Barnes customers who can testify to the fine qualities of the Smith & Barnes. In the manufacture of these pianos only the very best materials are used, and in tone quality they are surpassed by pianos selling for more money. The style you selected is one that sells regularly at $350.00 and the owner of this piano can only have a fine musical instrument that will give entire satisfaction, but something to be proud of. Yours very truly,
Montenegro-Riehm Music Co., by J. L. Riehm, Secy.
